Interpol hunting for MKO leaders

PressTV

Tue, 21 Aug 2007

Massoud Rajavi assisted Saddam Hussein in massacre of innocent Iraqis.

Interpol is hunting for the leaders of the terrorist group Mojahedin Khalq Organization (MKO) known in Iran as Monafqeen or hypocrites.

The Iraqi newspaper Al-Bayyinah al-Jadidah reports Interpol offices around the world have been notified and are hunting of the Rajavis.

The Iraqi government provided Interpol with evidence of MKO's role in the massacre of Iraqi citizens, and arrest warrants have been issued to bring Massoud and Maryam Rajavai, the leaders of MKO, to justice.

Jaafar al-Mousawi the Public Prosecutor of the Iraqi High Court has also confirmed that the court has issued arrest warrants for 150 MKO members.

According to al-Mousawi, Baghdad has even taken steps to extradite MKO criminals who are abroad or have fled to Jordan.

Mujahedin Khalq Organization (MKO) assisted Saddam in the massacre of thousands of innocent Iraqis, and it has committed several terrorist acts in Iran.

French Channel One Television (TF1) announced on the 20 Hours news broadcast August 08, 2007 that train services between Luxemburg and France are being investigated after information received from Luxemburg authorities indicated that up to five terrorist suspects (4 Iranians and one of Afghan origin) are being sought. The news went on to say that information received from the Luxemburg authorities claim that the four of Iranian origin are closely linked to the Mojahedin Khalq Organization Headquarters in France. The rail system between France and Luxemburg has been interrupted for almost twenty-four hours and security has been increased as France investigates this terrorist alert.

Iran condemned British overt support for a Proscribed terrorist group, Mojahedin Khalq Cult

MKO terrorism never be purged by new acronyms, UK weekly told

The Iranian Embassy in London has condemned attempts by some British newspapers and MPs to deproscribe the Mujahideen-e-Khalq (MKO or PMOI) as an international terrorist organization.

"Surely use of different, new acronyms such as PMOI, NCRI, etc. can never purge the organisation's long record of criminal activities," the embassy said.

No re-labeling can "put a shine on a body recognised internationally as a terrorist organisation, or in any way justify their terrorist cause," it said in a letter to the Sunday Telegraph.

The letter referred to an article in the weekly's previous addition on July 29, in which it said that the writer, Christopher Booker, had one clear obligation "to whitewash the background of a cult whose cruelty and hypocrisy are evident to concerned authorities and international bodies."

"It is not a baffling scandal of contemporary politics as the writer says, to categorize PMOI in the UK terror list, the irony is rather the way some former officials as well as MPs are trying to appease Saddam Hussein's ex-accomplices," the letter also received by IRNA read.

The embassy reminded the paper that the terrorist group "actively took part in slaughtering Iraqi civilians in order to receive the support of the Iraq doomed dictator."

"The bewilderment becomes even greater to see efforts by some lawmakers to help a cult which is proscribed even by some western governments for their atrocities towards Iranians, Kurds and Arabs," it said.

Last year, the embassy castigated the paper for reporting unsubstantiated allegations orchestrated by the MKO to distract attention from the catastrophic situation in Iraq.

In 2005, its sister paper, the Daily Telegraph went as far as calling in its editorial for support for the MKO terrorist group based in Iraq to overthrow Iran's elected government.

Professor Raymond Tanter, Iran Policy Committee, Women's Rights, and the MEK

Constance Andresen-Tanter has posted her comments on the November 30, 2006 incident at the University of Michigan sparked by Professor Raymond Tanter's speech promoting the Iranian Communist MEK (MKO, PMOI, NCRI, Rajavi Cult, or Pol Pot of Iran) terrorists. She has worked for the Iran Policy Committee. She is available as a speaker, talk show guest, or as an article or book author (attention: literary agents and publishers). You may telephone Constance at: (212) 920-7748.

For additional details on the incident at the University of Michigan and on the arrests of opponents of the MEK terrorists, see:

<http://defendwilkerson.org>

Constance Andresen-Tanter posted her comments today at the Michigan Daily's Web site: I am Raymond Tanter's wife and I would like to make a statement. I married Raymond Tanter May 14, 1999 being a widow living in New York City. I was innocent to what his work was about but he asked me to become his research assistant and help him promote his work, in fact many letters are written on Georgetown Letterhead how I helped him, how he benefited from my work...I traveled to France London, walked the Halls of Congress promoted what I thought was the Freedom for Women of Iran and all around the globe. Raymond and I traveled the globe together working in Vienna, etc. and I attending events at the State Dept. and other places helping him as his wife. I hosted parties for him in our Trump Tower apartment...I got him speaking engagements, at the WNRC in NYC, at the BEST social clubs in New York and elsewhere.... I took him to my clubs and gave him my apt NYCnow I find myself homeless, yes he locked me out of our apartment in ALBAN TOWERS in Washington DC he keeps two not one apartment for himself. He will not pay my dental bills, eye glasses or other medical emergencies. I AM in shock with threats to eliminate me and most of the information is in HOUSING COURT where Raymond Tanter fails to pay on one of our three apartments to make me homeless....he did this in SEPT 2006 the month my mother died after have her in 4 hospitals in 32 days. He threatend that if I did not sign off the lease and perhaps giving up my condo marital rights of the other apt. 507 which he used to work with IPC MEMBERS AND ALIREZA displaces me into another unit that they and yes I say they because they all knew he was making me homeless for no reason.....He apparently is now married to the to the MEK.....I am now in court but awaiting court orders. Raymond got into clubs in Washington using my social clubs as his which is untrue, he was never a member of those clubs,,,,then he refused to pay my bills since I could live there...He used my friends, many of high circles including their money in the hundreds of thousands of dollars.....he also took generals and their wives to Paris leaving me homeless with 13 cents in my pocket and without the good church I would be hungry....I worked years for him and am in the process of suing for my promised wages by my attorney.. and Raymond still is living the high life.....fooling many....However I married him as a widow former widow of a Wall Street MNYSE...a man of great character....I thought Raymond was a good man but he fooled me ..he still keeps a checkbook with his former lover in Ann Arbor MI Mia Saverino....some friends of Ann Arbor have come to me and said they are not suprised have missing funds from my deceased husband's life insurance and well I can tell you this because all you have to do is go to DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA HOUSING COURT FIRST IN ARSCHSTONE SMITH V. CONSTANCE AND RAYMOND TANTER...YES Raymond went to housing court refusing to pay rent on our extended apartment to make me homeless when I would not sign off units he now holds,,,,,because I believe of the condo rights status,,,,,since we moved into unit 507 in June of 2001.....which give lots of value should the ARSCHSTONE DEAL GO THREW the largest private equity deal in the UNITED STATES HISTORY.....so you see Tanter is not a nice man...he speaks of women's rights but he has made his former research assistant and partner and friend.....homeless after he took all he could get out of me...I pray for his soul daily, because I thought married a good Christian. I have many Jews as friends, Muslims, all faiths...I am white and I recently noticed that Raymond an African American never has even one African American intern or any African American around him.

We had a good marriage I thought and he whispered much in my ear of love and committment and never abandoning me.....he whispered much of his internal work and clearly involved me...My photos and media is all over Europe. and in Iran...I still believe one thing.....all people have the right to be free...

Raymond Tanter abuses his own wife.....so perhaps you might want my story how the once happy man I married , we danced at balls, and were friends on the tennis court and went to church and were happy....I was promoting his books and his works and the works of his friends....now I have no idea who he is..>I have been told I am a Mortal Threat but what human being makes a wife homeless stealing not one but two apartments....my clothes my life are in storage....Jack Andresen I married before had an Uncle in Congress for 34 years, his other Uncle Andrew Fleischer invented the blood pressure machine and his other Uncle was Arschbishop Raymond Ettelldorf of the Vatican in Rome.

I am banned from going to my dear friends at Alban Towers since he made a point to keep me isolated from family friends and living in fear of my very well being and life.....One might ask who 's spell is he under. Alireza took my place as Raymond's wife.....or at least he took my home space and life....I met Alireza's family and I liked them...I was kind to all and well now that watch me being abused and threatened and do nothing...Do the Generals know who are on the board that Raymond is doing all of this...I think not..They took their wives on thousands of dollars to a trip to Paris...I was in Paris in June of 2004 as Raymond asked me to speak and I even introduced Dick Armev....I thought this group was for the rights of women and democracy....but if that is true then why are they helping do this to me....Calls should be made on this issue and I am taking interview so when you email me identify yourself I am looking for a literary agent at this time....My story is inside the box and it needs to be told...>I loved Raymond when I married him...he apparently had other motives for marrying me.....I pray for Peace and love for all people in our world...I pray that all get to speak when they wish to do so..Last July 25 2007 a man was kept from speaking in the Caucus Room at Cannon Building because Raymond did not wish him to...My hand was ignored when raised....I will not be ignored, threatened by death threats or discredited I will fight back for my rights and for my property.....I would hope someone out there will listen. The public record of the divorce is Tanter v. Tanter in DC depositions are public record and of course. I am exhausted but people need to know first hand.....I am an abused wife....17 years younger of Raymond and I tried to get him to speak with our Minister he would not.....I wonder has he become a member of another religion? thanks and God Bless our World.

Response to Christopher Booker

Ahmad Baaraan, Paris, July 29, 2007

Your Sunday Telegraph article of July 29 titled "EU flouts its own highest court..." has some serious flaws that deserve your attention. I have known MEK (PMOI, NCRI, MKO, ...) for more than 25 years up-close and personal. I have also studied the group in my role as a researcher. Therefore, I see myself qualified to comment about it. Quite frankly, your article is just an echo of the PMOI's own propaganda filled with false and misleading information.

The enlistment of the group in the EU's terror list is based on the group's own behavior which is nothing short of a personality cult revolving around its leader, Massoud Rajavi, with a history of violence and a philosophy based on hatred. The group has also been enlisted by the US Government as an FTO (Foreign Terrorist Organization) which was later upheld in court. In concurring with the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, Judge Harry T. Edwards notes: "...the public, unclassified administrative record, including petitioner's own submission to the Secretary, contains more than enough evidence to support the determination that petitioner (PMOI) engages in terrorist activity." (1)

The December ruling by the EU Court you have referred in your article did not favor de-listing the group. To the contrary, it clearly dismissed the action sought by the PMOI to annul the EU Common Position 2005/936/CFSP- the updated terror list that included the PMOI. It did however order to unfreeze the group's assets due to lack of proper procedure for such freezing. Therefore, your assertion that the British Government is flouting its own court is not accurate. This ruling is readily available in 16 different languages on the Court's own official web site. (2) PMOI and its paid politician supporters have misled many about this, relying on that most would not read the actual ruling. I challenged the PMOI to translate the entire ruling (not just the select parts) in Farsi (Persian), and to post the translation on the Internet. They have refused to do so, and will continue such. More than 7 months after the ruling, only the favorable part of the ruling has been published on the group's Internet site.

Your article also refers to NCRI as a coalition of which PMOI is a member. This is simply not true. Not only people familiar with the group know that NCRI is just a decoy for PMOI; the United States Court of Appeals in Washington DC ruled the following:

After an extensive investigation of MEK and NCRI, the FBI reported to the State Department that "it is the unanimous view of the FBI personnel who are involved in and familiar with the FBI's investigation of the [MEK]that NCRI is not a separate organization, but is instead, and has been, an integral part of the MEK at all relevant times.... Contrary to NCRI's portrayal of itself as an umbrella organization, of which the MEK was just one member, the FBI concluded that is NCRI that is "the political branch" of the MEK."(3)

I caution you not to drift into the PMOI's propoganda traps by echoing their statistics about the number of people attendant their gatherings, people executed in Iran, and the number of supporters of the group in Iran.

UN and Iraq Cooperate to Expel the MKO

Sotaliraq

2007/08/14

"There are legal rulings on the leaders of MKO and PKK. However, what prevents their expulsion from Iraq is that no country is willing to accept them," said Hussein Kamal, representative of Iraqi Interior Ministry, during "Security Conference" in Damascus.

"We don't want these groups to disrupt the stability of our neighboring countries."

"With the cooperation of the UN, Iraq is negotiating with some countries to convince them to accept the MKO," he added.

It should be noted that the security experts of Iraq's neighbors joined the security conference in Damascus on Wednesday and Thursday; permanent members of the UN Security Council also participated in the conference.

Tom Tancredo's Support for the Mujahedin -e Khalq (MEK) Terrorist Organization

Many in the anti-illegal immigration movement admired Rep. Tom Tancredo when he stood up to the Mexican government and told them to stop meddling. Tancredo rightly told Mexican officials that they have no business dictating U.S. immigration policy. Mexican officials objected to possible U.S. legislation that would arrest illegals and fine and/or deport them...:namespace prefix = o ns = "urn:schemas-microsoft-com:office:office" />

It is unfortunate that Rep. Tom Tancredo doesn't follow his own advice. Like so many other U.S. officials he doesn't want foreign intrusion into U.S. affairs, but he doesn't have a problem with interfering in other nations' affairs.

Below is a letter that Rep. Tom Tancredo sent to the French government imploring them to stop arresting and deporting a certain group of illegal immigrants. Not only are these people illegal immigrants in the country of France, but they are also members of a known terrorist organization called the Mujahedin-e Khalq Organization (MEK). The MEK is also sometimes referred to as MKO, PMOI Rajavi Cult or Pol Pot of Iran. Tancredo also sent a copy of the same letter to the National Council of Resistance of Iran (MEK U.S. front group) demonstrating his full support for them.

Tancredo thinks it is ok to dictate another nation's immigration and security policy. The Mujahedin-e Khalq Organization or the MEK are listed as a terrorist group by the United States and dozens of other countries, including all of our western allies and eastern allies such as the U.K., Germany, France, Japan and Australia.

See the U.S. list of Terrorist Organizations:

<http://www.state.gov/documents/organization/45323.pdf>

Scroll down until you see Mujahedin-e Khalq (MEK) listed.

What are the criteria for a group being classified as a FTO (Foreign Terrorist Organization)?

The U.S. State Department has three main criteria for designating a group as a Foreign Terrorist Organization: 1) It must be a foreign organization; 2) The organization must engage in terrorist activity; and 3) The organization's terrorist activity or terrorism must threaten the security of U.S. nationals or the national security of the United States. All criteria have been met by the MEK. The State Department says that during the 1970's, the MEK killed U.S. military personnel and civilians in Iran and supported the takeover of the American Embassy in Tehran in November 1979. They also helped Saddam in suppressing Shiite and Kurdish uprisings in southern and northern Iraq. Other major acts of terrorism include killing over 70 high-ranking Iranian officials – including the Chief Justice, President, and Prime Minister - in 1981 by blowing up the head office of the Islamic Republic Party, and the near-simultaneous attacks in April 1992 on Iranian Embassies in 13 countries. The MEK have launched terrorist attacks in Iraq within the last 4 years. The MEK and U.S. Military personal were engaged in heavy combat just after the invasion of Iraq. More on this in a minute.

Tancredo's repeated letters to France called on the protection of these terrorists. Tancredo has been praised on the MEK's front group website - National Council of Resistance of Iran's website. French officials said that the MEK are terrorists and were a serious security risk for their nation. Should not the country of France decide who they want to let into their nation? Note that this was well before the recent Muslim uprisings in France. Mr. Tancredo would be one of the first in line to criticize France if they tried to dictate how the U.S. deals with terrorists and illegal immigrants in our own country.

In June 2003, the French police arrested a MEK cult leader (Maryam Rajavi) and many supporters. Some members of this communist cult responded by burning themselves to death. Shortly afterward, The Fox News Channel retained as an analyst and "conservative" media promote Alireza Jafarzadeh, who operated for many years from the National Press Building as a spokesperson for this group's press office, the National Council of Resistance of Iran (NCRI).

The neo-conservatives used the MEK as "intelligence sources" before the invasion of Iraq to justify their invasion. How did that turn out? This was despite the fact that the U.S. government knew the MEK information was NOT credible. Saddam Hussein was put on trial for war crimes; human rights violations, etc, etc. However, it was the MEK that actually committed many of these acts for Saddam Hussein. They have admitted to the world that they slaughtered the Kurds on numerous occasions. Yet, the U.S. media and U.S. politicians remain silent about the MEK.

Instead, our U.S. Military is under orders to protect the American soldier killing MEK in Iraq and we are funding MEK terrorist camps in Iran. When will we learn?? We won't until you get off your ass and help return the "power to the people".

The MEK actually slaughtered the Kurds, sometimes using chemicals (yes, the MEK had and still has chemical weapons). But, don't expect them to face any charges for their crimes. They are free. The charges are all going against Saddam Hussein and his inner circle.

The MEK are providing the "intelligence" on the Iranian nuclear program. The MEK were also the source for most of our top secret "intelligence" sources that we used for Iraq's so-called nuclear and weapons of mass destruction program.

So why should we trust them with providing intelligence on Iran? We shouldn't. period. They are terrorists that commit terrorist acts for the highest bidder.

They have made clear that they are seeking an overthrow of Iran from the very beginning. They are a terrorist group that wants to take over Iran. And they are ready to use their false intelligence again to take out the leadership in Iran as they did in Iraq. And the neo-cons and the Israeli interests are licking their chops again because the American media and the American people haven't woken up yet. The MEK has played such a vital role in the invasion of Iraq and tensions with Iran and the American people hear nothing about them. It is likely that this is the first time that many of you have ever heard of the MEK, unless you have seen some of my previous posts about them.

The American Israel Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC), the group that exercises tremendous control over U.S. foreign policy through Vice President Dick Cheney has promoted the Iran Freedom Support Act as well as many Christian Zionist ministers. The Iran Freedom Support Act is just one in many U.S. bills designed to give the MEK financial assistance. Of course these bills are Sold as ways to spread Democracy and Freedom.

Philosophy of the MEK

The MEK has developed their own unique dangerous ideological mix of radical Islam and Marxism. Original members of the group, Hosayn Ruhani and Torab Haqshenas, once claimed that their "original aim was to synthesize the religious values of Islam with the scientific thought of Marxism...for we were convinced that true Islam was compatible with the theories of social evolution, historical determinism, and the class struggle."

Below is an Article called 'Gray Lady runs ad for Terrorists' by Middle East Security/Terrorism expert Kenneth Timmerman.

The article refers to a full page ad that was placed in the New York Times on January 15, 2003 that thanks members of congress for their support for the MEK. The ad is paid for by the terrorist groups' American front group. 150 members of congress signed the letter of support. Many of the congressional staffers were misled by Rep. Tancredo and the other core group of MEK supporters in Congress, into thinking that this was an Iranian Democracy and human rights group seeking support for human rights and democratic reforms in Iran. The group has no interest in democracy. They only want to control Iran.

Shortly after this full page advertisement appeared in the New York Times, American soldiers went to war in Iraq and killed some of these Saddam Hussein-supported Marxist terrorists (as classified by the State Departments of Presidents Bill Clinton and of George W. Bush) in Camp Ashraf, Iraq. Camp Ashraf was/is a MEK terrorist training camp. But, a short time later the U.S. Military were given orders to stop battling the MEK. Instead, they were given orders to protect the MEK within camp Ashraf. Pentagon officials have stated that the MEK fighters were disarmed. However, several photographs of Camp Ashraf by several journalist sources have documented that MEK fighters are still heavily armed.

The MEK cult has many unusual features. Two such interesting features about the MEK cult include the following; The MEK leadership forces or "convinces" its married members to divorce. The MEK also has a very powerful military force. The MEK has routinely routed Iranian Revolutionary Guard (IRG) units. Besides, the U.S. Military the MEK may be the best trained military force now in Iraq. What is unusual about this highly trained fighting force? It is made up largely of women. Yes, that is right. This fact has led to some respect and support for the MEK by a handful of feminist groups in the United States.

These are known terrorists to 99% of the world, but these folks give them total support - Tom Tancredo (R-CO.), Ileana Ros-Lehtinen (R-FLA.), Bob Filner (D-CA.), Edolphus Towns (D-NY), Sheila Jackson Lee (D-Texas) and Lincoln Diaz-Balart (R-FLA.) MEK members have been caught sneaking into our country. Did Tancredo stand up against these illegals? No. Tancredo actually lobbied to have these terrorists freed into the United States. Are you comfortable with this?

This group has millions of dollars and spends it freely. They hold rallies in front of the United Nations and the U.S. Capital. They pay people from all over the world to come and hold signs and protest for freedom in Iran. Their front group National Council of Resistance of Iran is a heavyweight lobbyist group in Washington, D.C. throwing major gifts around and twisting arms for support. The group has the ear of Rep. Tancredo and the rest of the core group of MEK supporters in the U.S. congress and the Pentagon. The neo-conservatives and the congressional supporters of the MEK are treating these front groups and the MEK directly as a human rights groups and are always seeking financial support from U.S. taxpayers for MEK 'activities' in Iran and Iraq. Tancredo has called for proposals sending millions of your tax dollars to fund another misadventure in the Middle East. Even though the MEK's main 'activities' mostly consists of killing people.

How often have the neo-cons and Rep. Tancredo been interested in human rights? The MEK does not support human rights. The MEK often works as a group of bounty hunters, collecting cash for launching terrorist attacks.

The general Iranian population which is actually for more democracy in Iran is scared of the MEK and they often compared the MEK to Pol Pot. They will clearly resist them and create a civil war. Tancredo and MEK supporters claim that the Iranian population will welcome them with open arms. Where have we heard that before? Yet, Mr. Tancredo thinks that terrorists that have killed Americans should be helped to gain control of Iran and the trillions, upon trillions of oil dollars that would come along with it.

How can you just forgive them for murdering Americans? Mr. Tancredo doesn't say that the MEK never murdered Americans. He knows that they have. It has been well documented. He says that it was long ago and that they changed and we should forgive them. He says they care about freedom and want to help "us". The MEK has never shown an interest in freedom and Democracy. We don't need to be mixed up in another foreign entanglement. When are we going to learn? Probably never- or at least not until the opportunities to profit from it disappear. We all know what we can expect from this group if they gain power in Iran, judging from our former support for Saddam Hussein, the Taliban and Osama bin Laden. Plus, the MEK now has a large network of members in our country- which is a major security threat. These MEK supporters in congress have also refused to stop these illegal immigrant terrorists that we accept and protect. If you run across a suspicious looking terror camp in the United States and the feds don't seem to care or ignore your warnings- it is probably the MEK.
